

ANNUAL TEACHING SYMPOSIUM

J. Willard Marriott Library | August 14, 2017

8:30 – 9:00 AM | CHECK IN

West Lobby of the J. Willard Marriott Library

9:00 AM | KEYNOTE | Dr. Pearl Sandick, Associate Professor, Physics & Astronomy

Gould Auditorium

10:00 AM – 2:45 PM | WORKSHOPS

Room	Session I ❖ 10:00 AM	Session II ❖ 11:00 AM	12:00 PM	Session III ❖ 1:00 PM	Session IV ❖ 2:00 PM
Gould	How to Become a Great Public Speaker		L U N C H		Incorporating Active Learning into the Classroom
MLIB 1725	Using Instructional Models to Support Learning	Information Literacy for International Students
MLIB 1715	We Flipped 3 General Chemistry Sections and Lived Through It	Exploring Implicit Bias with Compassion and Empathy			Using Student-Created Videos to Promote Engagement & Achieve Learning Outcomes	Creating Learner Centered Classrooms
MLIB 1170	Survival Skills for Online Instructors	Presentation Toolkit: Creating Effective PowerPoint Lecture Slides			Making Equations and Formulas Work for Your Students	Engaging Learners in Large Classrooms
MLIB 1150	Assessing Writing	Constructing Rubrics: What, Why, & How They Can Be Used Effectively			Transparent Assessments & Grading	Strategies for Successful Group Work
MLIB 1140	Using Adobe Apps for Academic & Student Success	Adobe Resources for You and Your Students			Strategies for Library Research in the Digital Age
MLIB 1130	How to Talk About Race (or Gender, or Class, or...)	Experiential Learning			Creating Effective Lesson Plans: Methods and Applications	Learning & Memory - What Teachers Need to Know About the Brain
MLIB 1120 (MAC)	It's dangerous to go alone! Take this. Using gamification techniques in your class	Teaching Presence & Communication Tools for the Online Classroom			Building Your Online Course Navigation with Course Design Tools	Video Creation and Management

2:45 – 3:30 PM | UNSYMPOSIUM

Faculty Center (MLIB 1705)

Snacks!
Prizes!
Networking!