

ANNUAL TEACHING SYMPOSIUM | Overview

J. Willard Marriott Library | August 17, 2015

8:30 – 9:00 AM | CHECK IN

West Lobby of the J. Willard Marriott Library

9:00 AM | KEYNOTE: Dr. Cynthia Furse, Associate Vice President for Research/Professor, Electrical & Computer Engineering

Gould Auditorium

10:00 AM – 2:45 PM | WORKSHOPS

	Session I ♦ 10:00 AM	Session II ♦ 11:00 AM	12:00 PM	Session III ♦ 1:00 PM	Session IV ♦ 2:00 PM
GOULD	A Classroom for Everyone		L U N C H	Technology for Your Course: PechaKucha Style
MLIB 1725	Writing Across the Curriculum	Making Equations & Formulas Work for Your Students		Digital Storytelling: Tools to Enhance Narratives in the Classroom	Classroom Civility
MLIB 1715	Creating Learning-Centered Classrooms	The Collaborative Classroom		Creating an Inclusive Classroom
MLIB 1170	Teaching Students at a Distance: Campus Resources	Getting Students Communicating In & Out of the Classroom		Learning & Memory – What Teachers Need to Know About the Brain	Don't Recreate the Wheel: Integrate Library Resources
MLIB 1150	Teaching Millennials			Make the Most of the First Day of Class	Plagiarism & Cheating
MLIB 1130	How to Become a Great Public Speaker	Needs of Graduate TAs in Higher Education		How to Become a Great Public Speaker	Survival Skills for Online Instructors
MLIB 1120	Advanced Canvas Training <small>(class limited to 15, first come, first serve; register during check-in, participants must have access to an activated Canvas course)</small>			Basic Canvas Training <small>(class limited to 15, first come, first serve; register during check-in, participants must have access to an activated Canvas course)</small>
MLIB 1110	Basic Canvas Training <small>(class limited to 15, first come, first serve; register during check-in, participants must have access to an activated Canvas course)</small>			Basic Canvas Training <small>(class limited to 15, first come, first serve; register during check-in, participants must have access to an activated Canvas course)</small>

2:45 – 3:30 PM | UNSYMPIOSIUM

Please join us for:

Prizes!

Networking!

Faculty Center (MLIB 1705)

Snacks!

Good times!