University and Course Policies
*Academic code of conduct	You may choose to include portions of the Student Code that are relevant to your course (e.g., Academic misconduct, freedom of expression, etc.). The Student Code for the University of Utah can be found at: http://regulations.utah.edu/academics/6-400.php
*Faculty and student responsibilities	 You should outline instructor and student responsibilities: What is expected of the instructor and students in this class? What is typically expected in this discipline, this profession? What is expected of this type of class format (e.g., hybrid, flipped, facetoface)? You may address academic maturity here (e.g., student responsibility to participate, do the readings, etc.) Including discussion guidelines and a code of conduct is recommended. You can find the Faculty Rights and Responsibilities at: http://regulations.utah.edu/academics/6-316.php
*Late assignment/missed assignments policy
*Attendance/tardy policy	 You should address your attendance and tardy policy with students. "The University expects regular attendance at all class meetings. Instructors must communicate any particular attendance requirements of the course to students in writing on or before the first class meeting. Students are responsible for acquainting themselves with and satisfying the entire range of academic objectives and requirements as defined by the instructor." PPM, Policy 6-100III-O)
*ADA statement	This is a required statement that must be included in every course syllabus verbatim. The verbiage is as follows: The Americans with Disabilities Act. The University of Utah seeks to provide equal access to its programs, services, and activities for people with disabilities. If you will need accommodations in this class, reasonable prior notice needs to be given to the Center for Disability & Access, 162 Olpin Union Building, (801) 581-5020. CDS will work with you and the instructor to make arrangements for accommodations. All written information in this course can be made available in an alternative format with prior notification to the Center for Disability & Access.
*Addressing Sexual Misconduct	Addressing Sexual Misconduct. Title IX makes it clear that violence and harassment based on sex and gender (which Includes sexual orientation and gender identity/expression) is a civil rights offense subject to the same kinds of accountability and the same kinds of support applied to offenses against other protected categories such as race, national origin, color, religion, age, status as a person with a disability, veteran's status or genetic information. If you or someone you know has been harassed or assaulted, you are encouraged to report it to the Title IX Coordinator in the Office of Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action, 135 Park Building, 801-581-7066. For support and confidential consultation, contact the Center for Student Wellness, SSB 328, 801-581-7776. To report to the police, contact the Department of Public Safety, 801-585-2677(COPS).

Student Names & Personal Pronouns	This is a strongly recommended statement that when included will make students who go by another name as well as students who have a desired personal pronoun feel supported and welcomed in your class. For more resources please visit Personal Pronouns https://lgbt.utah.edu/campus/faculty_resources.php. Verbiage for this statement: Class rosters are provided to the instructor with the student's legal name as well as "Preferred first name" (if previously entered by you in the Student Profile section of your CIS account, which managed can be managed at any time). While CIS refers to this as merely a preference, I will honor you by referring to you with the name and pronoun that feels best for you in class or on assignments. Please advise me of any name or pronoun changes so I can help create a learning environment in which you, your name, and your pronoun are respected. If you need any assistance or support, please reach out to the LGBT Resource Center. https://lgbt.utah.edu/campus/faculty_resources.php
Diversity / Inclusivity Statement	This is a strongly recommended statement that indicates your commitment as an instructor to creating a welcoming and inclusive classroom environment that respects and values students' diverse backgrounds. Following is an example of a diversity statement:
	I stand in support of compassion, dignity, value-of-life, equity, inclusion and justice for all individuals regardless of color, race/ethnicity, sexual orientation, religion, language, socioeconomic status, ability, gender, gender identity or expression, immigration status, or any type of marginalization. I stand in support of making our society more inclusive, just, and equitable for all individuals. I stand against individual and systemic racism in all its various forms.

Undocumented Student Support Statement	Undocumented Student Support. Immigration is a complex phenomenon with broad impact—those who are directly affected by it, as well as those who are indirectly affected by their relationships with family members, friends, and loved ones. If your immigration status presents obstacles to engaging in specific activities or fulfilling specific course criteria, confidential arrangements may be requested from the Dream Center. Arrangements with the Dream Center will not jeopardize your student status, your financial aid, or any other part of your residence. The Dream Center offers a wide range of resources to support undocumented students (with and without DACA) as well as students from mixed-status families. To learn more, please contact the Dream Center at 801.213.3697 or visit dream.utah.edu.
Wellness statement	Verbiage for thisstatement: Personal concerns such as stress, anxiety, relationship difficulties, depression, cross-cultural differences, etc., can interfere with a student's ability to succeed and thrive at the University of Utah. For helpful resources contact the Center for Student Wellness at www.wellness.utah.edu or 801-581-7776.
Veterans Center	Verbiage for this statement: If you are a student veteran, the U of Utah has a Veterans Support Center located in Room 161 in the Olpin Union Building. Hours: M-F 8-5pm. Please visit their website for more information about what support they offer, a list of ongoing events and links to outside resources: http://veteranscenter.utah.edu/ . Please also let me know if you need any additional support in this class for any reason.
Learners of English as an Additional/Second Language	Verbiage for this statement: If you are an English language learner, please be aware of several resources on campus that will support you with your language and writing development. These resources include: the Writing Center (http://writingcenter.utah.edu/); the Writing Program (http://writing-program.utah.edu/); the English Language Institute (http://continue.utah.edu/eli/). Please let me know if there is any additional support you would like to discuss for this class.
Content accommodation policy	You should share your expectations regarding scheduling and/or content accommodations. For more information, see Section Q at: http://regulations.utah.edu/academics/6-100.php
Non-contract note	You may wish to include a note about potential syllabus changes; you should indicate how changes will be communicated to students. Sample verbiage is asfollows: Note: This syllabus is meant to serve as an outline and guide for our course. Please note that I may modify it with reasonable notice to you. I may also modify the Course Schedule to accommodate the needs of our class. Any changes will be announced in class and posted on Canvas under Announcements.

Plagiarism software policy	It is strongly recommended to include this policy if you will be using a plagiarism detection software service. Sample verbiage is as follows:
	I have elected to use a plagiarism detection service in this course, in which case you will be required to submit your paper to such a service as part of your assignment.
Official drop/withdraw date	Sample verbiage for this type of general course policy is as follows:
	The last day to drop classes is [date]; the last day to withdraw from this class is [date]. Please check the academic calendar for more information pertaining to dropping and withdrawing from a course. Withdrawing from a course and other matters of registration are the student's responsibility.

Online/Hybrid Guidelines (select those that apply)
*Course Canvas page or website information	You may want to indicate how often students should log in/check Canvas.
Electronic or equipment failure	 It is your responsibility to maintain your computer and related equipment in order to participate in the online portion of the course. Equipment failures will not be an acceptable excuse for late or absent assignments.
Online submissions	Sample verbiage for this type of statement is as follows: You are responsible for submitting the assignment with the required naming convention, correct file extension, and using the software type and version required for the assignment.
Classroom equivalency	 Sample verbiage for these type of statements are as follows: Discussion threads, e-mails, and chat rooms are all considered to be equivalent to classrooms, and student behavior within those environments shall conform to the Student Code. Specifically: Posting photos or comments that would be off-topic in a classroom are still off-topic in an online posting. Disrespectful language and photos are never appropriate. Using angry or abusive language is not acceptable, and will be dealt with according to the Student Code. The instructor may remove online postings that are inappropriate. Do not use ALL CAPS, except for titles or overuse of certain punctuation marks such as exclamation points and question marks. Course e-mails, e-journals, and other online course communications are part of the classroom and as such, are University property and subject to the Student Code. Privacy regarding these communications between correspondents must not be assumed and should be mutually agreed upon in advance, in writing.
Computer literacy expectations/suggestions	 Computer/Internet basics Specific computer program/app knowledge (Word, PowerPoint, PDF, etc.)
Campus Resources	You should provide campus and online resources for students when faced with technology problems (e.g., Teaching and Learning Technologies, Marriott Library Knowledge Commons, UIT, etc.).
